

Carolyn Freeman

press

DATE:

April 5, 2004

CONTACT INFORMATION:

Chris D. Unthank
Director of Publicity and Marketing
Southern Spin
chris@southernspin.com
PHONE: (615) 898-7228

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASECarolyn Freeman Signs Exclusive Web Publishing and Publicity Deal with Southern Spin

MURFREESBORO, Tenn. – Southern Spin is proud to announce the signing of Carolyn Freeman to a full year of exclusive publicity from the organization. Through the agreement, Carolyn Freeman has gained full contact with all media outlets serviced by Southern Spin, in addition to advertising and marketing opportunities. Freeman has also signed on to a full year of web publishing from the organization.

Carolyn Freeman is a Southern Gospel soloist based out of Maud, Texas. She has a rich family history, which includes singers, songwriters, and musicians. Freeman has one album to her credit, Save Me a Spot. Her current radio release is "Lord, Save Me a Spot".

Amy Marie Unthank, co-owner of Southern Spin said, "Southern Spin is always happy to sign up and coming artists. Carolyn is our first soloist, and we couldn't be more excited about working with her."

Carolyn's new webpage will be unveiled in the coming months.

About Southern Spin

Southern Spin is a newly founded organization formed in order to groups or artists in the Southern Gospel and Country Gospel genres. The company strives to help their artists/partners establish themselves in the industry by providing publicity, marketing, web design, and much more.

For more information on Southern Spin, go to <http://www.southernspin.com> .

###

